JAPANESE COLUMN VIRTUALLY WIPE OUT

Somewhat Brighter Outlook On Lunghai Front

MEDICAL RELIEF FOR KULANGSU

Manila, To-day.

The local Chinese Relief Committee and the Philippine Red Cross are co-operating in drawing up measures for relief of the 70,000 Chinese refugees at Kulangsu, in response to messages from Amoy through the United States Consul, urgently requesting food and sanitary equipment.

A message from Amoy on Friday afternoon requested shipments of rice, and a further message at midnight on Friday indicated that the rice supply was almost exhausted.

It is learned that the Chinese Relief Committee has purchased 2,500 bags of rice in Hong Kong, which is being shipped to Kulangsu care of the United States Consul. It is also understood that two sanitary units are being organised to-day by the Red Cross.

ONLY TWO DOCTORS

Messages from Amoy indicate that there are only two doctors on Kulangsu, who are unable to cope with epidemics.

Approximately 90 per cent. of Manila's 40,000 Chinese inhabitants are from Amoy.—Reuter.

HUGE FIRES AT HSUCHOW

Hankow, To-day.

Chengchow, Kaifeng and Hsuehchow were subjected to severe bombing raids again this morning. Incendiary bombs were dropped at Hsuehchow and huge fires have been started.

The Lunghai Railway was also heavily bombed, and communications are, for the present, disrupted. It is denied, however, that the Japanese troops have cut the railway at any point.—Our Own Correspondent.

Japanese Advance In W. Shantung Halted

Hankow, To-day.

Chinese military quarters here admit that the battle for the Lunghai Railway has now entered a decisive phase and that the situation has become rather serious.

They declare, however, that, in view of the exceptional bravery displayed by the Chinese troops in the recent fighting, considerable time will pass before any of the Japanese troops now engaged in fighting in this sector, become available for operations on the other sectors of the front.

An official communique reports that a number of local successes have been scored by the Chinese troops in the region of the Lunghai Railway.

The Chinese reinforcements succeeded in bringing the Japanese advance in West Shantung to a standstill and the Chinese are confident that the advance of Japanese columns which have been closing in on the towns of Kiangsiang, Yuetai, Kueyeh and Hotseh will likewise be brought to a standstill.

JAPANESE WIPE OUT

A Japanese mobile column of 800 men, twelve tanks and a number of fieldguns launched a surprise attack northwards on Tangshang, a station of the Lunghai Railway 80 kilometres west of Hsuehchow, but its advance was stopped by Chinese troops 20 kilometres south of Tangshang after four hours' heavy fighting. According to Chinese reports, the Japanese lost no fewer than 600 dead in this action.

Tanks and fieldguns of the virtually annihilated column were captured by the Chinese troops.

TOWNS RETAKEN

The Chinese moreover report that the two towns south of the Lunghai Railway which were recently captured by the Japanese, namely Mengcheng in the northern part of the province of Anhwei, and Yungcheng in west Honan, have been almost completely surrounded by Chinese troops so that their re-occupation is imminent.

It is confirmed that Chaohsien, 70 kilometres to the east of Hsuehchow, has already been recaptured by Chinese troops.—Trans-Ocean.

JAPAN'S UNINTENDED COMPLIMENT TO CHIANG

London, To-day.

The defensive power given by the machine-gun to a retreating army, the difficulties of the Chinese terrain and the problem of supplying their troops so far from the sea, may well prevent the Japanese from winning the decisive success to which they aspire, declares "The Times" in an editorial on the battle for the Lunghai Railway.

Nor does it appear probable that a Japanese victory, however important, will break the spirit of the Chinese Government.

Geography and numbers are on their side, and the strength of the new Chinese national spirit does much to make up for deficiencies in armament.

That the Japanese should be comparing the Lunghai campaign with the Battle of Mukden (in the Russo-Japanese War) is the highest compliment that could be paid to General Chiang Kai-shek and the armies which he has inspired by his constancy and courage. — Reuter.

Arundel Castle Prepares For Duke's Baby Decorations In Broken White Tones

The old nursery formerly occupied by the Duke of Norfolk and his sisters at battlemented Arundel Castle on the Sussex Downs has just been made ready for the birth of a child to the Duke and Duchess of Norfolk in a few weeks' time.

This and a second adjoining nursery have both been decorated in broken white. The cradle used by the Duke of Norfolk and his sisters is being repaired. It is of wicker-work and wood and stands on mahogany legs.

The Duchess is telling her friends that she expects her baby to be born early in June. She and the Duke arrive at the castle today from Newmarket.

Woman Decorator

A woman decorator has advised on the castle colour scheme. The Duchess also asked her to advise on the rearrangement of furniture. The Duke has had the decoration carried out by his own permanent staff.

The principal bedrooms, like the nursery, have been decorated in broken white. Furniture has been rearranged throughout the series of reception rooms in keeping with the early English 13th century manner in which much of the castle was rebuilt in the last century.

One of the objects of the re-planning has been to make room for valuable pictures and hangings brought from Norfolk House, the Duke's former London home, and which proved unsuitable for the very modern new home in Belgrave-square.

The billiard room has been turned into an armoury. Furniture in the large drawing room and dining room, small dining room and three more drawing rooms has been entirely rearranged.

Young People's House Parties.

One of the most striking additions to historic Arundel is a swimming pool now being erected in the old tilting court where knights once tested their prowess.

The Duke and Duchess hope to spend most of the summer at the castle until after Goodwood, for which the Duke usually entertains a house party.

The Duchess usually shops at Arundel walking into the town with the Duke.

EMBROIDERY FOR AMATEURS To Give That Professional Look

Here are three ways in which the amateur needlewoman may introduce embroidery—now such a smart note in dress for all occasions—effectively.

1. Tiny wool tassels, each row in a different colour, decorate the pockets of a navy suit.

These tassels are simply four loops of wool sewn through the material with a knot at the top of the four and the ends of the loops cut through. A half-hoop of tiny gilt beads finishes the top, as shown in the detail sketch.

2. A plain dress gains an expensive look by circles of self-coloured embroidery. To work this, cut a circle of white card the size of a penny and sew round it little French knots, using fine silk braid instead of embroidery silk.

3. Most simple of all is the collar and belt decorated with tiny flowers in lovely colours.

Eggs in savoury eggs is a dish simply and quickly prepared that tempts by its attractive colouring.

Cut hard-boiled eggs lengthwise and remove the yolk, which is mashed with pulped beetroot, grated cheese, butter and seasoning. Fill the egg centres with this mixture, re-form the eggs, and garnish with cucumber and beetroot cut into shapes. Prepare a tomato sauce; stew tomatoes in butter, sieve to remove skin and pips, then thicken with cornflour. When cold pour sauce round eggs and well cover with grated cheese.

SINCE BABY WAS BORN...

I Can't Get A Good Night's Rest!

A young mother writes her at her.

"I am half-dead with want of sleep, I can honestly say that I have never had a decent night's sleep since baby was born, and she cries a good deal in the day, too. I really feel I shall go crazy if something doesn't happen soon."

"My husband has to go to work early, and he says he can't stand it any longer if he doesn't get a decent night's rest."

The baby who cries in the night, and particularly the baby who cries night and day, is suffering from indigestion, and the feeding is at fault.

This is not only the case with bottle-fed babies; for if those who are naturally fed are allowed to indulge themselves too freely they also have indigestion.

Sleep is so valuable to us all — and baby wants it just as much as his parents.

During the first month of life — or perhaps six weeks — baby may wake between 2 and 4 a.m., because he has been accustomed to waking at regular three or four hourly intervals during the day.

He has yet to learn the difference between night and day, but if he is given a little warm, boiled, unsweetened water, made comfortable and turned over, he will soon learn what is expected of him.

He will find that water is not worth waking for, so that by two or three months old he sleeps between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., at any rate.

The greatest pitfall is to give in to baby, and feed during the night.

This is a case of "out of the frying-pan and into the fire," for the cause, which is indigestion, is not altered; in fact, it is increased.

Crying becomes worse, and baby may get really ill.

The most healthy, modern babies are fed four-hourly in the day — that is, five feeds in the twenty-four hours, the last being given at 10 p.m., and the earliest at, say, 5.30 or 6 a.m.

Indigestion is so often mistaken for hunger because some of the signs are the same.

Baby is apparently always "looking for food," moving his head from side to side, opening his mouth, crying, restless and pitiful — altogether an unhappy little person.

It is only by examining his weight and general condition that we can be sure what is the trouble.

No baby should be allowed to gain more than 7oz. in the week, with an occasional 8oz., under six months of age, but, unfortunately, quite a number of babies are allowed to gain 10oz. and 11oz. and more.

A good pair of baby scales, weighing to the 1/4oz., are a sound investment for any home where there is a baby.

They are rather expensive to buy, though really give life service, as they can be used for household purposes afterwards.

Remember — the weighing should take place at the same time of day, and, if possible, baby should be naked.

If baby is bottle fed, and crying unduly, then we must examine the type of food he is having, the quantity, the rate at which he takes the food, and the heat at which it is given, for these are all important points.

Even the naturally fed baby can feed too fast with dire results.

The baby who is hungry, or who is slightly underfed, usually cries little — yes, undoubtedly the chief cause for crying is indigestion.

Other causes sometime may be discomfort, over-clothing, unwise management (of course, if baby is always dandled directly he opens his eyes, he will soon learn to expect this, and become restless and spoilt).

There is no mistaking the cry of the sick baby; this is fretful and weak.

The lusty roar that is so distracting is undoubtedly nearly always due to overfeeding, and is very prevalent during the early months of life.

CHINESE LEADERS NOT ALARMED BY GRAVITY OF LUNGHAI RLY. OUTLOOK

Hsuehchow, To-day.

While admitting the situation on the Tsinpu front has reached a critical stage, a high Chinese military officer attached to General Li Tsung-jen's headquarters here, in an interview with the Central News, warned that too much importance must not be attached to the outcome of a struggle along a single line, when the situation of the war as a whole is weighed.

The high officer, behind a desk littered with maps, papers and telephones, however told the interviewer that despite terrific sacrifices, the mass of Japanese men and steel have so far failed to capture any of their chief objectives along the south Shantung front.

Having failed to push through to the Lunghai line first by a northward and then a southward drive, the Japanese are now in the midst of an ambitious pincer movement on both directions. They are, nevertheless, far from the goal of their fond dreams, the officer said.

JAPANESE HOPE

The hope of the enemy, was that they would draw the main force of the entire Chinese army to points along the Tsinpu line and there engage them in a pitched battle.

The Chinese forces, however, have distributed strong forces at all points, and in south Shansi, a vigorous counter-attack has begun.

It is believed that with the difficulties attending the sending of reinforcements from Japan, the enemy command is experiencing the shortage of manpower.

THE GREAT DIVIDE

"Therefore although the situation along the Tsinpu front is tense, the Japanese army is at a great disadvantage when the war is viewed in every phase."

Even if the Japanese objective in the drive to Hsuehchow were achieved, the officer believed the enemy forces would encounter more difficulties than before as the co-ordination of Chinese mobile and guerilla operations would spell fresh disasters to attempts at the further advance of the invaders.

The officer pointed out that when the Japanese gained control of the Japanese staff officers last night said they expected a junction of the Japanese columns moving on the Lung-hai Railway west of Hsuehchow in 24 hours.

The latest Japanese report claims that the vanguards of the Japanese forces in north and central China are only within four kilometres of each other in the vicinity of Tangshan.—Reuter.

Tatung-Puchow Railway, uninformed quarters feared the invaders might easily cross the Yellow River and cut the Lunghai line.

As a matter of fact, not only were the Japanese attempts to cross the Great Divide repeated failures, but the Chinese have actually recovered more than ten districts in south Shansi since that time.

JAPANESE PROBLEM

"The Japanese areas of occupation at the end of last year were first reduced to lines and now are merely precarious points exposed to the danger of Chinese attacks from every direction."

The officer concluded by expressing complete confidence in the final outcome of the war.

"In a long war of attrition, the Japanese will be exposed to more and more danger as they penetrate deeper and deeper into the interior, and we shall have better chances for dealing them decisive blows," he predicted.—Central News.

FRANCE DISTURBED BY IL DUCE'S WRONG SIDE OF BARRICADE SPEECH

Paris, To-day.

Papers of all shades of political opinion here freely express the painful surprise caused in French political circles by Mussolini's references to France in his Genoa speech.

Disappointment at the Duce's utterances appears all the greater since it had been generally believed that "normalisation" of relations between Paris and Rome was now practically assured.

"Petit Parisien" observes that Mussolini's remarks concerning the Franco-Italian negotiations were quite unexpected and that it is clear that certain French proposals relating to Spain were considered unacceptable by the Duce.

The paper says that it had been evident for some days past that the negotiations had reached a deadlock and that serious divergencies had arisen between Count Ciano and the French Charge d'Affaires, M. Blondel.

"Le Journal" criticises the Genoa speech as "violent and threatening," and reproaches Mussolini with adopting an aggressive attitude.

"Le Matin" asserts that the crowd in Genoa booed whenever Mussolini alluded to France.—Trans-Ocean.

NOTHING LESS THAN LOCAL AUTONOMY

Berlin, To-day.

Regarding the Statute of Nationalities in Czechoslovakia, which is now being prepared, the "Voelkischer Beobachter" remarks that if certain reports current abroad may be believed, the statute in question will contain nothing beyond a codification of existing provisions concerning minorities in that country.

The paper says that this would not afford any solution of the problem since nothing would be changed thereby and moreover those provisions have been constantly violat-

Prague, To-day.

The statement issued by the Czech Ministry of Interior on Saturday stating that the "Voluntary self-defence Service of the Sudeten German Party," by its proclamation and the appointment of a Chief of Staff, had violated regulations, has given rise to a heated discussion in the press.

Radical left wing papers demand the instant dissolution of the Service, whereas papers with connections with official quarters state that the Ministry will merely uphold the confiscation of the proclamation, and warn the Germans that the "Service" must refrain from using military terms in its pronouncements.

If the "Service"—it is stated—maintains discretion, there is no reason why the organisation should be dissolved.—Trans-Ocean.

ed-by-the-Czechoslovak-Government. Minorities in Czechoslovakia, says the paper, are not struggling for codification of their inferior rights "but for complete parity which presupposes complete sovereignty in their respective regions."

Nothing less, according to the paper, would satisfy the various minorities.—Trans-Ocean.

EMBEZZLEMENT SENTENCE

Six months' hard labour was imposed on Lau Cheung, 25, employed by Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Magistracy this morning, when he appeared on remand charge with having embezzled $104.18 from Wing Loong rice firm and fraudulently used $280 entrusted to him by Liu San.

SNEEZE GIVES SIGNAL FOR HEROIN RAID

Five hundred and fifty dollars led 26-year-old Ip Ng-chai into a trap set for him by the Revenue Department, and a sneeze resulted in his arrest, and appearance before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions this morning.

He was charged with possession of nine ounces of heroin, which Crown Counsel, Mr. E. H. Williams, alleged was sufficient to make 230,000 pills. Accused was convicted and sentenced to three years' hard labour.

The jury were Messrs. J. C. Power (Foreman), S. D. Begg, Lat Tatting, Ng Sze-yuk, Choy Sai-pin, B. Rolfe and Yeung Wing-sek.

Crown Counsel stated that on receiving certain information, R. O. Mak Chan proceeded to the Sun Toi-shan Boarding house, after handing $550 to an informer on April 21.

As pre-arranged, the informer gave Mak Chan a signal by sneezing, following which Mak Chan communicated with Senior Revenue Officer A. W. Grimmit. The latter arrived soon afterwards with a party of other revenue officials and arrested accused in Room No. 11. In accused's possession were found several packets of powder, common ingredients for manufacturing heroin pills. One packet contained nine ounces of heroin. In defendant's pocket was found the $550. Defendant denied the accusations but was found guilty.

HEAVY SENTENCE PASSED ON PEPPER THROWER

Three days without food—throwing pepper into the eyes of a European woman—an unsuccessful attempt to wrench the woman's "carry-all"—represented the sequence of events which resulted in the appearance of a 38-year-old unemployed ricksha coolie before the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, at the Criminal Sessions this morning.

Tsang Fo the accused was convicted of assaulting Mrs. Ruby Evelyn Spencelayh, of No. 21, Jubilee Apartments, Austin Avenue, Kowloon, at 7.35 p.m. on April 6, with intent to rob, and was sentenced to two and a half years' imprisonment, with hard labour.

Mr. John Whyatt, prosecuting, stated that the man was arrested by a cook-boy of No. 28, Austin Avenue, who after hearing the cries, "Snatching," came out in time to see accused running past the house.

Pepper was found in the pockets of the man's jacket.

MOPPING UP AT CHAOHSIEN

Chinese troops who recaptured Chaohsien, on the east border of the Chao Lake in central Anhwei, on May 14, are now engaged in "mopping up" operations on the outskirts of the city.—Central News.

SPENT HIS FIRM'S MONEY TOO FREELY

Leung Chit, aged 19, a shop foki, was this morning sentenced to six months' imprisonment by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Magistracy when he pleaded guilty to the embezzlement of the sum of $457.10 from the Kwong Loong Tai rice store, No. 76, Connaught Road West.

Sergeant MacVey said defendant had been employed by the firm for the past six years at a monthly wage of $3 and commission which averaged $2. a month. Part of defendant's duties was the collection of accounts. A few days ago the manager grew suspicious owing to the free spending of defendant inspected the books and found the deficiencies.

A Chinese detective was sent to arrest defendant but, armed with two choppers he stood at the top of the staircase, refused to surrender, and threatened the detective. A phone call brought Sergeant MacVey and others to the scene and defendant then surrendered without trouble.

BANISHEES SENT TO PRISON

Three banishees were arraigned before the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, at the Criminal Sessions this morning charged with breaches of the Deportation Ordinance.

Lau Wing, life banishee, was sentenced to four years' hard labour for returning to the Colony after having had been deported on November 25 last.

Three and a half years' imprisonment was imposed on Wang Hing-kee, and Chan Fu, who was banished for ten years in February, 1934, was sentenced to two and a half years' hard labour.

Mr. John Whyatt prosecuted.

PERRY-ROGERS WEDDING

At the Registry this morning, before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith, Mr. Robert Perry, son of Mr. R. Perry, formerly of the Taikoo Dock Company and Mrs. Perry, was married to Miss Edwina Louisa Rogers, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Edwin Rogers, of Bosham, Sussex, and the late Mrs. E. Mackay.

The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's stepbrothers Messrs. N. A. E. Mackay and J. F. C. Mackay.

THREE YEARS

Admitting that he had had carnal knowledge of a 12-year-old Chinese girl, Tang Fook-tai was sentenced to three years' hard labour at the Criminal Sessions this morning by the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell.

Mr. John Whyatt appeared for the prosecution.

SUDETEN GERMAN LEADER ON LONDON CONVERSATIONS

Well Satisfied With Results Of Talks

Settlement By Negotiation Becoming Likely

Prague, To-day.

Herr Henlein, leader of the Sudeten German minority in Czecho-Slovakia, returned home from London, via Berlin, last evening.

He said he was very satisfied with his talks in London, where he is reported to have gained the impression that Britain would not allow the peace of Europe to be disturbed, and therefore the claims of the Sudetens could be settled only by negotiation.

Herr Henlein hoped the political situation consequently would be much eased.

Dr. Krofta, the Foreign Minister, saw the British and French Ministers in Prague yesterday, and promised to do everything to satisfy the demands of the Sudeten Germans.

Dr. Krofta is understood to have stated that the new Nationality Statute would provide proportional representation for the German population in all spheres of public administration and some form of self-administration.

It is believed the latter will probably be brought about by increased powers in local councils, including control of the police.—Reuter.

VARIOUS IMPLICATIONS

London, To-day.

Konrad Henlein left London on Saturday evening. He boarded the plane at Croydon to fly to Berlin from where he intends to continue his journey by train to Prague.

Although still apparently in dark as to the nature of the conversations which the Sudeten German leader had with members of the British Government during his unexpected visit to London, the newspapers are still busy in discussing the various implications of this visit.—Trans-Ocean.

SUNDAY COMMENT

London, To-day.

The usefulness of the Sudeten German Leader, Konrad Henlein's visit to London, is stressed by the "Sunday-Times," which writes that the conversations which Herr Henlein had with Mr. Churchill and other prominent personalities would seem to have paved the way for peaceful solution of the Czechoslovak problem.

According to the paper, the impression prevails in political circles here that Herr Henlein is prepared to revise some of his demands.

The paper states that it is in a position to affirm that Herr Henlein will commence negotiations with the Foreign Minister, Dr. Hodza, within the next ten days, and that the Statute of Nationalities elaborated by the Czechoslovak Government will in practice provide for autonomy of Sudeten Germans, although the word "autonomy" itself will be avoided.

The paper believes that the German Government is willing to con-

CZECH REPLY TO BRITAIN

LONDON, TO-DAY.

THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN GOVERNMENT'S REPLY TO THE BRITISH MEDIATION MOVE WAS RECEIVED HERE DURING THE WEEKEND. THE REPLY HAD BEEN COMMUNICATED TO THE BRITISH MINISTER IN PRAGUE ON SATURDAY AFTER-NOON.

An identical note was handed to the French Minister in Prague at the same time.

The Czech reply is now being examined by the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain and the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, who returned from Geneva to London yesterday.

The Czech reply will be discussed by the Cabinet at its regular session on Wednesday next.—Trans-Ocean.

RUMANIA'S JEWISH PROBLEM

Geneva, To-day.

Endeavours of the delegates of the Jewish World Congress to persuade the French, British and Rumanian Foreign Ministers to make the various petitions of Jewish groups the subject of a formal debate in the League Council were unsuccessful.

The League Council, however, discussed the question of relief for Jewish refugees. The Rumanian Foreign Minister agreed to subject the laws passed by the Goga Cabinet to a re-examination.—Trans-Ocean.

NO DETAILS

Prague, To-day.

Konrad Henlein, leader of the Sudeten Germans in Czechoslovakia, who returned to Asch yesterday afternoon from his visit to London, declared that he was very satisfied with the results of the journey, but revealed no details of his discussions to press correspondents.—Trans-Ocean.

JAPANESE LUNGHAI CLAIMS

Peiping, To-day.
A Japanese official communique claims that troops which crossed the Yellow River near Puyang, in Shantung, cut the Lunghai Railway east of Kaifeng, completely stopping railway traffic.—Reuter.

JAPAN CLAIMS LONG DISTANCE AIR RECORD

Kisarazus, near Tokyo, To-day.

Breaking the world long-distance flying record by covering 11,600 kilometres in 62 hours 23 minutes, the Japanese monoplane "Wings of the Century" landed at 7.21 last evening at the aerodrome here.

The big plane had completed 29 laps of the 400 kilometres triangular course since its take-off at 4.55 on Friday morning.

Its feat is stated to have broken the endurance mark set by the French ace, Madrice Rossi.

The plane covered 10,800 kilometres at an average cruising speed of 180 kilometres an hour, compared with the Frenchman's average of 149.85.—Reuter.

BRITISH PROTEST IN PEIPING

Peiping, To-day.

The British authorities made representations to the Japanese authorities last night following the exercise of military control in the Legation quarter by Japanese forces.

This control included the placing outside the British Embassy entrance of a Japanese soldier with fixed bayonet.

Traffic in the streets was stopped, causing much inconvenience in the entire Diplomatic Quarter.

Reason for the step appears to have been the return from a sightseeing expedition of Prince Chichibu, who is residing at the Japanese Embassy.—Reuter.

23 Millions Learn About Life!

THE other day I happened to be lunching in the company of a certain noble lady whose intellectual distinction has long been accepted by her fellow countrymen. Suddenly, to my horror, she openly declared—the talk having turned upon a recent film which most members of the party had apparently enjoyed—"I never go to see these wretched pictures. Their influence on the people strikes me as appalling."

Such a maddening generalisation makes my blood pressure jump perilously upwards.

It is so affected, so antiquated, so typical of a highbrow section of the community, and above all so incorrigibly stupid.

Precisely the same rubbish was talked centuries ago when Caxton set up his printing press.

Dangerous, they said, to let the common people have access to the printed word.

Books would put ideas into their heads, ideas about life that might be pernicious and deadly to the community.

What timid twaddle that seems to us to-day!

There is no need to hammer home the argument.

We can admit the inadequacy, the inanity of individual books. The mass effect of literature remains. And so it is with this new art, this marvellous reproduction of life, the moving talking picture.

We have all seen bad pictures.

The first talkie ever made was a tinny song scena lugubriously entitled "Sonny Boy." But out of "Sonny Boy" came "Mutiny on the Bounty," "Henry VIII," "Dodsworth" and "Emile Zola."

The art of the cinema is moving forward all the time to better and still better things.

Do you remember those jerky bioscope westerns of your childhood days? If you do—I need say no more.

Frankly, however, this rapid advancement in taste and technique is not my thesis.

I hope, naturally, for that Utopian day when every film will reach 100 per cent. perfection.

I rejoice in the films of our times which display outstanding merit.

But meanwhile I do not base my argument upon exceptional achievements.

It is not these; it is the average contemporary film I am just now defending, the very ordinary movie, and especially the realistic movie, the sex triangle, the gangster picture, the small-town comedy, the drama of the race track, the underworld, the divorce court!

In a word, all of those pictures which constitute the rank and file of movie production to-day.

I uphold these pictures against conventional opinion because they teach our people, and especially our young people, about life.

Nowadays it is no use maintaining that pious Victorian sentiment that the eyes of our younger generation must be kept religiously away from what used to be euphemistically termed "the facts of life."

Ours is a realistic, modern world, and the sooner our young folks learn to face the hard, cold facts of this hard, cold universe the better for them and for everyone concerned.

The usual criticism, the usual attack directed against such films as I have in mind is that they have a bad moral influence upon the young.

What muddled thinking this is!

As I have said, the pretence of innocence is past. And the truth is that young people to-day are learning from the cinema a great deal about the dangers of life, and being forewarned are thus able to beware of them.

We all know the historic bromide of the country maiden arriving in the great city and falling an easy victim to its perils because of her dear, sweet ignorance.

But that doesn't happen any more. The films have killed it.

Milkmaids in Wiltshire have seen "Three Wise Girls" and "Mrs. Deeds Goes to Town."

They are plenty tough, in consequence. They can take care of themselves.

Seriously, it is this very precept of warning by example which makes me confidently affirm that the films play a positive role in building up a healthy moral outlook.

The crime film is perhaps more often inveighed against by the Puritans than any other.

Oh! I have no doubt that after an exciting dose of Charlie Chan small boys are liable to alarm their parents with a sleuth-like approach and cries of "Stick 'em up."

But this is mere childish play.

The vast majority of the audience comes away from a film like "Scarface" or "Little Caesar" with a profound horror of all lawlessness, and a burning determination to play their part as good citizens in suppressing such cruel and cowardly thuggery.

Films of this nature are deliberately planned to achieve this effect, to expose and not to glorify the gangster, to show that the end of all crime is inevitably misery and death.

Why in the name of heaven should we decry them?

Surely it must be admitted that for the reasons I have stated any films which represent life—not as it should be, but as it is—fulfil the highest social purpose.

And to-day in the cinema most enlightened producers are so setting out to represent life.

Possibly the snob-consciousness, the type of mind which delights in a pretentious French film—subtitled in English—will here interpose to argue that Hollywood has never given and never will give us a true picture of life.

This is sheer nonsense.

We still occasionally get an idiotic film where white Hawaiian maidens and blue-eyed crooners blend upon exotic beaches in defiance of the laws of reason.

But cinemagoers to-day are vastly intolerant of hokum, ready to "laugh off" coincidence, incongruity or drivel.

And why, may I ask?

Simply because the films have educated them to do so.

Think this over the next time your children ask you for money for the cinema.

INSURGENTS' STEADY PROGRESS

Barcelona, To-day.

A war bulletin published by the Republican Ministry of Defence states that the insurgents have succeeded in pushing back the Republican front at Valle de Lagusa, on the road from Teruel to Cantavieja.

GERMANY REJECTS PROTEST

Declines To Admit Breach Of Treaty With U.S.

ARGUES RIGHT TO MAKE RACIAL EXCEPTIONS

Berlin, To-day.

The note which the United States Government handed to the German Government on May 9, protesting against the application of the "decree for compulsory registration of Jewish property" to the property of Jews holding American citizenship, formed the subject of an interview which the United States Ambassador to Berlin, Mr. Hugh Wilson, had with the Secretary of State at the German Foreign Office, Herr von Weizaecker, on Saturday.

In explaining the German standpoint, it was pointed out that the German Government did not hold that the compulsory registration and its extension to Jews holding American citizenship constituted a violation of the German-American Amity and Consular Agreement of December, 1920. The charges that had been made in this direction were entirely baseless. Consequently the German Government saw itself compelled to reject the United States protest.

The clause of the German-American Agreement cited in this connection states, inter alia, that Germany and America reciprocally undertake in principle to place their respective nationals on an equal footing with their own subjects in respect to the exercise of trade and commerce.

The new regulations enforced by the German Government does not place foreign Jews in a worse position than Jews having German citizenship. The view set forth in the American protest note to the effect that the German-American Agreement does not admit of discriminatory treatment of specific groups of citizens of the other contracting party on racial grounds finds, according to the German view, no support in the text of the Agreement.

GERMAN CONTENTION

This American view, it is contended in Berlin, would give rise to an extraordinary situation in which it would be inadmissible, in the treatment of subjects of the other contracting party, to make any distinction regarding age, experience or professional qualifications.

The official German reply to the American Government's note will be communicated to the American Ambassador in form of a verbal note.—Trans-Ocean.

PARIS, TO-DAY.

THE ASSURANCE GIVEN BY THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN FOREIGN MINISTER, DR. KROFTA, THAT THE CZECH GOVERNMENT WILL GO A LONG WAY TO MEET THE SUDETEN GERMAN DEMANDS, WAS RECEIVED WITH GREAT SATISFACTION HERE.

The actual situation in Czechoslovakia is now being understood better here, thus the papers now reluctantly admit that Czechoslovakia is not a solid Czech state, as was sometimes pretended, but a conglomerate of nations.

The Sunday papers again publish lengthy comments on the London visit of Konrad Henlein.

The fear that British statesmen may go too far in supporting the Sudeten Germans is openly expressed.

LEAGUE IR-RESOLUTION

The latest League resolution on China followed lines which might easily have been predicted. There is a certain encouragement to League members to do more than they have so far done to assist China, directly or indirectly. Condemnation of Japan is reiterated. There is a very clear warning to that country that unless she desires to antagonise world opinion even more seriously than she has already accomplished, she would do well to abandon any idea, if she ever entertained it, of trying to shift stubborn defenders in Shantung with poison gases. There is, however, no guarantee by the League of assistance to China. Any suggestion of joint action is clearly ruled out by the resolution, and freedom of choice (as already exercised) is unlikely to have results any more spectacular than those marked since the resolutions of last year.

It remains a protest, however, and Japan would be wise to give more serious attention to the world's protests. The organisation of voluntary boycotts in Britain and the United States is a remarkable demonstration of the strength of popular feeling, and in democratic countries popular feeling cannot be despised. Nor will the Japanese Navy do anything to appease this outcry if it repeats such atrocities as the massacres reported to have occurred in Amoy. Civilised peoples distinguish between combatants and non-combatants but not between massacre of civilians and massacre of disarmed and wounded soldiers. And even if Japan is so generous as to conduct her war according to the rules of humanity, it will not make the war itself any more justifiable or any less criminal. The League does well to warn against gas attacks, but their responsibility is by no means ended with the passing of another resolution.

No Admittance

We have it on the authority of Kipling and common experience that "the cities are full of pride," and common sense would suggest that the Cinque Ports are probably even prouder. For once it was the special task of Sandwich, Dover, Hythe, Romney, and Hastings, together with the "ancient towns" of Winchelsea and Rye and various affiliated "limbs" or "members" such as Margate, Ramsgate, and Folkestone, to be responsible for Channel defences and the safety of the coasts nearest to France. So far back as the days of William the Conqueror they began to be welded into a special and privileged authority for that purpose, and though the function and authority have now largely vanished, the tradition and some of the picturesque formalities survive. Nor are they to be lightly invaded. At a "Court of Brotherhood and Guestling," held at New Romney, Gillingham and Eastbourne sought to become members of this ancient and honorific confederation, but both were refused. They could not have been, rebuffed more sternly if they had applied in days when the paramount Cinque Ports had many full-blown rights, from tol and team to pillory and tumbrel or blodwit, fledwit, infangtheof, and mundbryce. Eastbourne and Gillingham must not try to "muscle in" on what remains of our Middle Ages.

Kings In Exile

There is not yet, so far as one knows, a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Equestrian Statues, but this is not for lack of feeling. The Barber Institute, of Fine Arts at Birmingham recently offered to find a home for Dublin's equestrian statue of George I, lying on the tennis court in the back garden of the Mansion House. In exchange Dublin was to receive "a sum of money" with which to buy another work of art more pleasing to Irish taste. Birmingham's motives in seeking the exchange are not easy to discover, for it is hard to believe that anyone would desire a statue of George I for its own sake. Even in his native Hanover he was never considered a handsome monarch. Nor has the statue any known aesthetic value, and one cannot consider the malicious suggestion that Birmingham only desires the £600 worth of bronze it is said to contain. A genuine sympathy with equestrian statues seems the only explanation. There is, after all, a precedent. Some years ago Belfast offered to take Dublin's statue of William III, which had just been blown off its pedestal. Unfortunately the Dublin Corporation was not able to find the head at the time (it had been sawn off and stolen), so the offer had to be refused—after all, the English have only beheaded one King.

ARMED TRANSPORTS OFF FUKIEN COAST

Imminent Attack On Foochow Still Feared

Planes Bomb The Aerodrome

Shanghai, To-day.

The presence of armed transports off the Fukien coast has given rise to fears among the populace of Foochow of an imminent Japanese invasion, according to a foreign report.

The report says that preparations are being made by the inhabitants for evacuation into the interior. Japanese planes raided Foochow aerodrome yesterday and dropped twelve bombs, which caused no damage except to create craters in the airfield which workmen speedily filled up. — Reuter.

Canton, To-day.

It is officially announced here that the Japanese fully occupied Amoy Island on Friday, all Chinese troops having retired to the mainland.

The Japanese are sending gong-beaters about the Island informing the population that the Chinese troops have been driven away and that the Japanese will take over the administration.

Residents have been ordered to surrender all firearms to the Japanese. Most of the Chinese, are, however, still on Kulangsu.

Meanwhile there is a heavy concentration of Chinese forces on the mainland.

NEXT MOVE?

No attempt has yet been made by the Japanese to land troops on the Fukien coast between Amoy and Foochow. It is however expected that the next move will come soon and that the most likely place for the Japanese to attempt to land will be in the vicinity of Swatow. — Our Own Correspondent.

LUNG-HAI FRONT

Shanghai, To-day.

It is reliably learned here that the Lung-Hai Line has been badly damaged by Japanese bombers. The civilian casualty list in Hsuehchow is steadily mounting, and red-cross and rescue workers are still digging in the debris for dead and wounded.

Buildings in Kaifeng are still ablaze from incendiary bombs dropped by the Japanese yesterday.

Chinese re-capture of Yungcheng is asserted and fighting is also in progress in the neighbourhood of Mengcheng, where the Chinese are violently counter-attacking.

Contrary to Japanese reports, it is reliably learned that the Chinese have made no attempt to withdraw from Hsuehchowfu, and are not making any preparations to abandon the city. — Our Own Correspondent.

NEW "LORD" OF AMOY ISLAND?

Shanghai, To-day.

Japanese reports here state that the former Japanese Consul-General at Amoy will leave Tokyo on Tuesday for Amoy Island. He will be accompanied by the Vice-Consul and staff and will first fly to Formosa. — Our Own Correspondent.

DR. WYATT'S MURDER IN NORTH SHANSI

London, To-day.

Dr. Chesterman, medical secretary of the Baptist Missionary Society, told Reuter yesterday that they knew that Dr. H. G. Wyatt, reported to have been shot and killed in north Shansi, was conducting a party of missionaries to Taichow.

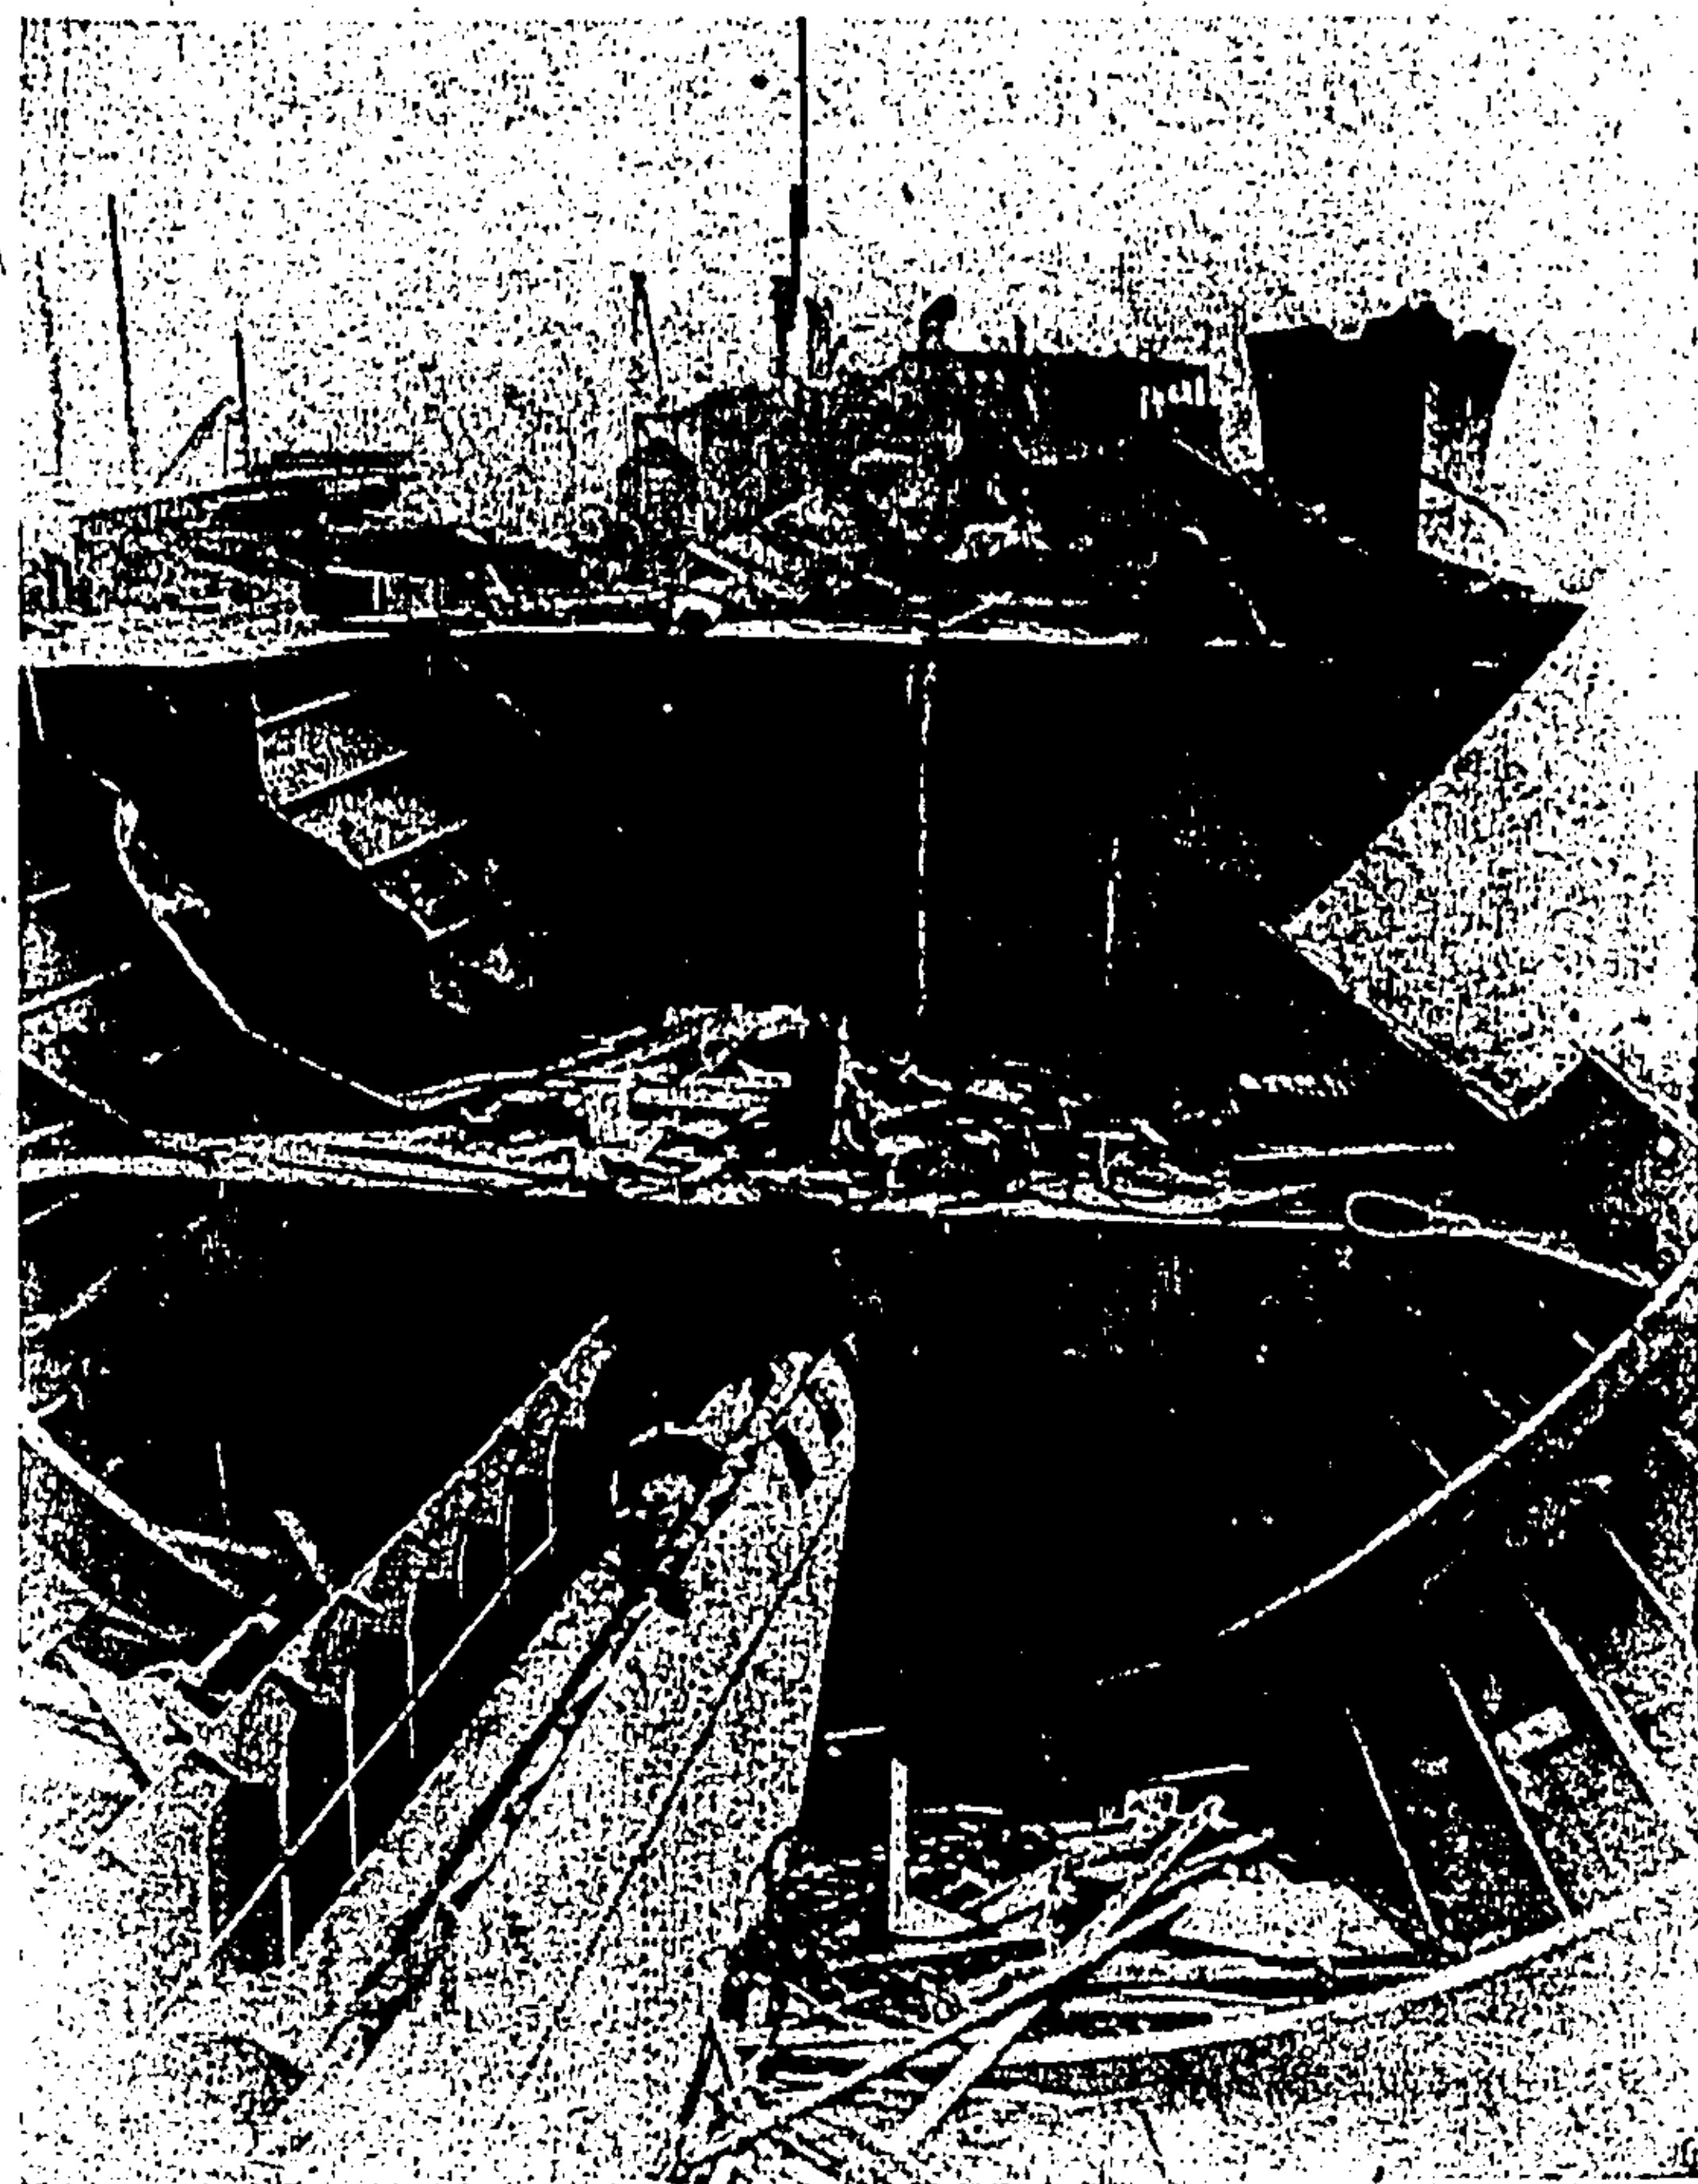

Dr. Chesterman had been told that Japanese soldiers had rescued two other missionaries and that Dr. Wyatt and Miss Glasby had been murdered by Chinese Communists.

The Society, however, was unable to accept that version without confirmation, as last November, statements were published about the ill-treatment of Dr. Wyatt by the Chinese, which later proved baseless. — Reuter.

CHINA UNDERWRITERS MEETING

The Hon. Mr. A. L. Shields presided this morning at the annual meeting of shareholders of China Underwriters, Limited, when expansion of the Company's business in Malaya and the Dutch East Indies was reported.

The Chairman said:—
 In the Life Assurance Department New Business Premiums at $126,930 show a satisfactory increase over the figure of $77,534 in 1936. The increase was mainly due to improved New Business in the Straits, Dutch East Indies and Burma, and, in the latter half of the year, in Hong Kong.

The increase more than offset the falling off in the latter half of the year in business in Canton.
 The total premium income at $648,182 compares with total premiums in 1936 of $604,477. We have also received consideration for Annuities amounting to $49,408.

DEATH CLAIMS HEAVY

Death Claims at $131,533 have been heavy, compared with $91,096 last year, while Maturity Claims at $67,954 compare with $23,151 in 1936.

Surrenders at $134,738 show an increase over the figure of $101,234 in 1936.

Expenses, excluding Commission, amounted to $212,225 compared with $199,237 in 1936, the increase being mainly due to the expenses in connection with the acquisition of the increased New Business in the Straits and Dutch East Indies.

The Life Assurance Fund shows an increase from $572,268 to $691,815. This increase is not as large as last year, due to the heavier claim rate and increased surrenders.

In the Fire Insurance Department Premiums at $102,996 show a falling off from last year's figure of $107,379. Claims at $55,556 show a decrease compared with the figure of $75,897 in spite of claims amounting to $9,673 having been paid in connection with the Typhoon in September last.

Expenses at $22,539 show a marked decrease as compared with the figure of $31,396 last year.

Reserve for unexpired risks at $78,077 shows an increase over the Reserve at the beginning of the year which was $72,586.

TYPHOON CLAIMS

In the Marine Department Premiums at $110,363 show an increase over last year's figure of $80,969.

Claims, however, at $102,975 show a large increase over the figure of $65,243 last year. The claims figure includes about $47,000 paid in respect of typhoon claims.

The expenses at $35,095 are, somewhat heavier than the 1936 figure of $31,763, and the Fund stands at $127,920 as compared with $155,881 at 31st December 1936. The present Funds is ample to provide for unexpired risks, being in excess of one year's premiums, and considerably in excess of a full year's claims.

In the Accident Department Premiums at $50,845 show a small increase over the figure of $48,762 in 1936.

Claims at $38,724 are somewhat heavier than the figure of $32,876 last year.

Expenses at $16,606 are somewhat higher than last year corresponding to the increased income.

The Fund stands at $32,386 showing a considerable reduction as compared with the figure of $47,313 at the beginning of the year, but the reserve should be sufficient to cover the unexpired risks under the policies.

In the Profit and Loss Account the main item is the interest not carried to other accounts of $53,893. After carrying $50,000 to General Reserve Account, here remains a balance in Profit and Loss Account of $12,897.

INVESTMENT FLUCTUATION

Turning to the Balance Sheet, the principal feature calling for comment is the question of the depreciation of Stock Exchange Securities, which, apart from Shanghai securities, referred to later, amounted at 31st December to some $50,000 as compared with the values at the beginning of the year. The principal items in question have been written down to their values at 31st December 1937 corresponding to a reduction in the Investment and Exchange Reserve from $250,054 to $200,350. There has been considerable recovery in the shares since the date of the accounts.

In conclusion I should like to place on record our appreciation of the valued co-operation of the Managing Director, the Branch Managers, Secretaries and Staff.

Mr. N. V. A. Croucher seconded the Chairman's proposal and the report and accounts were adopted.

OTHER BUSINESS

Messrs. A. L. Shields, Li Tse-fong and Dr. Durran were re-elected directors on the proposal of Mr. C. H. Basto, seconded by Wong Tat-choy, and Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews and Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming were re-elected auditors on the proposal of Mr. R. Johannessen, seconded by Lo Chung-wan.

The following attended:—Messrs. A. L. Shields, Li Tse-fong, Dr. Durran, Mr. H. R. Sturt (directors) E. R. Childes, (secretary) and the following shareholders:—Messrs. N. V. A. Croucher, C. H. Basto, Wong Tat-choy, R. Johannessen, Lo Chung-wan, I. W. Shewan, H. J. N. de Figueredo and E. Leita.

Ng On, aged 52, master of junk No. 2228H, has reported the seizure of his junk by the Japanese. He left Macao on May 12 with two other junks. His junk was loaded with firewood, valued at $300. When near Tai O, a Japanese motor-boat came along-side and about 10 sailors boarded. The crew was put on to a sampan and the junk was towed away by the Japanese.

WOMAN DOCTOR'S DON'TS FOR WIVES

"Don'ts" for women who want to make a success of marriage were enumerated by Dr. Ethel Dukes, co-director of the Institute of Child Psychology, Warwick-avenue, W., when she spoke on "The Successful Wife," at Friends' House, Euston-road.

The wife who wishes to succeed, she said, will not:

Domineer over her husband;
Criticise him in the presence of others;

Insist on changing him;
Refuse to be friends with his friends;

Try to show him off;
Make him into a cushion carrier or an additional servant;

Insist on constant entertaining in the house and out of it when he is tired and wants a smoke and his cosy slippers;

Despise his homespun qualities when she has had time to improve her cultural and social qualities while he has been hard at work;

Run down his mother or other relatives;

Get into debt;
Refuse to have children if he wants them and there is no medical reason why she should not;
Use any feminine wiles or neurotic illnesses to make him subservient to her.

Dr. Dukes, who is herself a wife and mother, said that it was better not to marry than to enter it asking "What can I get out of marriage?"

ALLOWANCES FOR WIVES

Another important point, she continued, was that an arrangement should be made at the start about money. Every wife should have a personal allowance that she could spend as she liked.

Other qualities essential to the successful wife were common sense, a sense of proportion and a sense of humour. Without these she would be inclined to make mountains out of mole-hills.

Unselfishness, tactfulness, adaptability, absolute fidelity and loyalty to her husband were equally requisite.

"I am all in favour of early marriages," Dr. Dukes said.

Other points in her address were:

"Courage is necessary for the successful wife, particularly in the early days of marriage.

"It is most important that girls should be trained to be good wives not only in matters of housekeeping but in other ways. In earlier generations girls married knowing nothing of sex matters. Their mothers, although they had had many children, often told them nothing."

"MARRY ONLY FOR LOVE"

Homes where men had married a domestic servant had a much higher standard.

"Marriage should be undertaken for no reason but love."

Her final advice was that the successful wife needed the quality of forgiveness. In marriage men were very often far more forgiving than women.

Dr. Dukes, whose husband is Dr. C. E. Dukes, the bacteriological expert, lives in Queen Anne-street, W. She was married in 1915 and has one son.

NEW POWERFUL PLANES BUILT FOR BRITAIN

Latest type planes which are now being delivered to the British Air Force are considerably faster and better than any in Europe, according to the air correspondent of the Evening Standard.

New battle-planes are even faster than the famous "Hurricane" planes which are able to attain a speed of more than 400 kilometers per hour and the latest type bombers are faster and better than the Bristol-Blenheim bombers, which were hitherto considered the last word in bombers.

New hydro-planes under construction are also of a greatly improved type, according to the correspondent, who, however, is unable to state further constructional details since all latest type planes and hydro-planes are still on the Air Ministry's "secret list."

GLIDING RECORD BROKEN

Berlin, To-day.

The long-distance gliding record set up by Stormtroop Leader Kraft on Friday had only a very short life, since Miss Hanna Reitsch yesterday surpassed Kraft's performance of a flight of 168 kilometres by a 1½ hour flight from the Waserkuppe to Darmstadt and back to the starting-point thus covering a distance of 250 kilometres.—Trans-Ocean.

REFEREES LEAD 3-0 BUT PRESS FORCE 3-3 DRAW

Annual Soccer Match
At Sookunpoo

Played in blistering heat, the Hong Kong Referees' Association and the European Press yesterday morning shared six goals, in their annual football encounter, which was held on the Sookunpoo ground.

The Referees held a three clean goals lead at the interval, but a spirited rally by the Press, the result of various positional changes, saw the latter completely dominate the exchanges and eventually draw level.

Both sets of forwards were weak in front of goal, with the result that many scoring opportunities went begging.

The Referees attacked from the start and in several raids initiated by K. K. Ip, their enterprising inside-right, and their two inside-forwards, Clark and Smith, left the Press defence spread-eagled time and again and resulted in three goals in quick succession from Barretto, Hobson and Fraser.

In the second half, C. E. Wong, the Press centre-forward, was transferred to goal, while Giffen moved into the half-back line, Omar leading the attack.

This livened up the entire Press eleven, and from this stage onwards they were all over their opponents. First blood after repeated attempts, was drawn by Burnett, the Press inside-right who took the ball down and beat Hartley with a fast cross-drive, which the latter got his fingers to but failed to hold.

Shortly afterwards, from a corner kick on the right, Brothwell handled in the penalty area, and Hodgkinson had no difficulty in further decreasing the Press arrears.

Press continued to force matters and after several corner-kicks from the right had proved fruitless, one eventually dropped in the goal-mouth. Omar attempted to head it

FRENCH SOCCER XI WIN EASILY COLONY INTERMEDIATE LINE'S FAILURE

OUTPLAYING the local team in every department and taking full advantage of their opportunities in the closing minutes, the Saigon football team had no difficulty in defeating a Colony eleven by four clear goals at Causeway Bay, yesterday before a fair crowd.

The Association found great difficulty in fielding its selected team and Bowen, Mak Sui-hon and W. Knox were brought into the team at the last moment.

The local intermediate line of Hsu, Lam Tak-po and Hussain were unable to hold the fast visiting forward line and though they met with some success in the first half, were out manoeuvred in the second to such an extent that the backs, Mak Shui-hon and Bowen were unable to cope with their task.

In the Colony forward line, Knox, who played his first representative game, was fast and sent in several good centres, but D. Leonard, at centre forward, was too slow in his movements and was invariably robbed by Buu, the opposing centre-half.

The outstanding visiting player was Buu, their pivot. He again kept his forwards well plied with passess and made the utmost use of his wingers.

The wingers Tien and Dai were into the net, and, missing completely, unsighted the Referees' back, for the ball to strike his chest and bound into the net to place the Press on level terms.

Threatened with the prospect of extra time, which had been facetiously suggested, both sides made valiant efforts to score the decider in spite of the intense heat, but raids on both citadels had no result.

Outstanding for the Press were Hodgkinson, Brownbridge and Omar, while Quark and Giffen worked hard throughout. The Referees were best served by Hartley, their goal-keeper, who was nursing an injured ankle, and Fraser, centre-half. Ip, at inside-right, was a constant source of danger, and was well supported by Hobson and Demmee.

The game was capably handled by Fung King-cheong, South China star forward, whilst Messrs. Close and Eddy assisted on the lines.

Press.—C. E. Wong (S. C. M. P.); G. W. Giffen (H. K. Telegraph); R. Hodgkinson (S. C. M. P.); A. Quark (S. C. M. P.); J. Brownbridge (S. C. M. P.); A. T. Lee (S. C. M. P.); N. A. E. Mackay (China Mail); G. C. Burnett (China Mail); Omar (S. C. M. P.); W. Roberts (S. C. M. P.); T. Joughin (S. C. M. P.).

Referees.—Hartley; Smith, Brothwell; Moorcroft, Fraser, Goss; Barretto, Ip, Hobson, Demmee, Edwards.

"REVIEWER'S" SPORTS COMMENTARY

IT seems a great pity that the team of Saigon footballers who have only recently arrived in the Colony, should have contemplated a visit to these shores following the completion of the local season.

We in the Colony were given to understand that our French visitors had come down here to learn the game, but it seems as if the "boot is on the other foot! The Saigon team gave a superb display against South China and, although it was hinted that the local team were minus several of their players, I doubt very much whether the inclusion of these absentees would in any way have changed the aspect of the game.

The French team must have profited by the visit of the Islington Corinthians before the latter's visit to the Colony, as the English team manager described their Saigon opponents as slow on the ball, as lacking cohesion in attack and, above all, as having played without any set plan.

This statement now seems all the more extraordinary in view of the visitors' performance last Saturday, when they outshone the South China Combined team in all departments of the game!

The visitors were easily a yard-and-half faster on the ball than their opponents, used their heads to great advantage (I have not seen a better goal than Tot's since Tam King-pak and A. V. Gosano were at their best) and swung the ball about with great accuracy like a team of professionals.

I should liked to have seen this Saigon team against the best that Hong Kong could have produced and warrant that if they did lose, it would only have been by a goal or two at the most.

Yesterday, against the best representative side the Colony could field (at this time of the year) they made light of their work and won comfortably by four clear goals, but if I'm not mistaken, we shall see them at their best next Thursday when they meet the Army.

There are several things about their play which I do like. They go all out for a win, play a fast and attractive type of soccer, and (on their two showings) here, play the game for the game's sake!

Colour On Courts

AN air mail report from a London paper dated May 2 states that lawn tennis authorities are concerned about colour.

At Bournemouth last week there were several unofficial committee meetings to discuss unconventional garments worn by competitors in the Hard Courts Championships, and the rules regarding dress may be tightened for Wimbledon.

One "garment" under discussion was a Cambridge-blue jockey cap worn by Choy of China.

It was startling—but as there was no rule against it he was allowed to wear it. This may be banned in future.

Dress-laws have always been unwritten but strict, and the L.T.A. look with disfavour on fancy dress for tennis.

They may have to put their all-white, no-trousers-for-women rules into print.

New Ball After 200 Runs

LIEUT.-COLONEL R. S. Rait Kerr, secretary of M.C.C., recently issued the following statement:—

"With reference to a statement that has appeared in the Press to the effect that the M.C.C. are contemplating an alteration in the present new ball rule, the secretary of the M.C.C. states that replies to a recent inquiry addressed to the first class counties indicate a general wish that the present rule should not be altered. Any suggestion that such an alteration is to take effect must therefore be regarded as premature."

very fast and were greatly instrumental in their team's success as they required constant attention and were able to draw the defence before crossing the ball.

Tink, the goalkeeper, was not tested to the same extent as on Saturday, though he was a trifle lucky as the ball twice hit the cross-bar.

After an even 20 minutes play, the Saigon team took the lead through Tot. In the second-half, Van registered two goals and Tot the other to bring their total to four.

Arrangements are now being made for the Saigon team to play the Army on Thursday, and South China, on Saturday. Both games will start at 5.30 p.m.

Borotra's Views On Davis Cup Scheme

The Biennial Idea Is 'Heart-Breaking'

WOULD BE BAD THING FOR AMATEURISM

(By "A. WALLIS MYERS")

London, April 19.

MY recent articles about the proposal to "biennialise" the Davis Cup—a proposal which the American founders of this world competition are strongly resisting—have drawn a sympathetic letter from M. Jean Borotra, one of the famous "Four Musketeers" of France, and probably next year's president of the French Lawn Tennis Federation.

"IS IT POSSIBLE," HE WRITES FROM PARIS, "THAT THE DAVIS CUP TRADITION, WHICH HAS DONE SO MUCH FOR THE YOUTH OF MY OWN COUNTRY AND HAS SPREAD THE GAME ALL OVER THE WORLD, BRINGING SO MANY NATIONALITIES TO WIMBLEDON, IS TO BE INFECTED WITH THE REVOLUTIONARY SPIRIT OF THE TIMES AND BE BROKEN? I CANNOT BELIEVE IT. IT WOULD BE HEART-BREAKING."

Having competed in more Davis Cup matches than any player, living or dead, Borotra's opinion as to the value of the competition, both in recruiting players and in promoting international team championships which engender good will, deserves every attention.

He declares that France will never accept the every-other year principle so long as the United States, which he describes as the nursery of champions, uphold the annual tradition. As well hold Wimbledon every two years!

WHY THE L.T.A. SUPPORT

Borotra believes that the British L.T.A. have been induced to support the biennial proposal, which was first put forward by South Africa, because of their anxiety to protect young amateurs from the interruptions to a working career which several months' Davis Cup campaigning might involve.

"If this is their fear," he says, "I do not think the solution is to be found in making the competition a biennial event. There are so many good sportsmen in England who should be willing to release a young employee for the necessary time, recognising the educational value of world travel, and the fact that winning and holding the Davis Cup brings prestige to the nation."

THROUGH DAVIS CUP

Borotra himself became a captain of industry partly through bringing into his own business the energy which he has so often exhibited on court—that is to say, he became a better business man through his Davis Cup training—and partly through the opportunities for travel which lawn tennis offered. Borotra worked hard off the court as well as on it.

Finally, he makes the point that if the governing bodies of the game were foolish enough to cut the Davis Cup in half they would not only cripple an institution which has been of such inestimable benefit to themselves, but they would be unwittingly, of course—assisting the promoter of promiscuous professionalism.

MORE CIRCUS TENNIS

"There would be more circus tennis," he says. "Davis Cup teams, trained and organised by the associations, would tend to lose their cohesion, and perhaps their enthusiasm. It would be a bad thing for amateurism."

In his heart of hearts, I am sure, Borotra does not believe the biennial plan will ever go through. Nor do I.

Close Of Play Cricket Scores

London, To-day.

At Lord's, before a capacity crowd of 32,000 spectators, the gates having to be closed, the Australians put up another mammoth score in their match against the M.C.C., on Saturday.

At the close of play their score was 428 for 5, to which Don Bradman contributed 257 not out and Hassett 57.

The following were the close of play cricket scores:—

At Lord's: M.C.C. v. Australians. Australians 428 for 5 (D. G. Bradman 257 not out, A. L. Hassett 57).

At Nottingham: Notts v. Sussex. Sussex 307 for 2 (Jim Parks 131 not out, Cox 101).

At Cambridge: the University v. Northants. Cambridge 209.

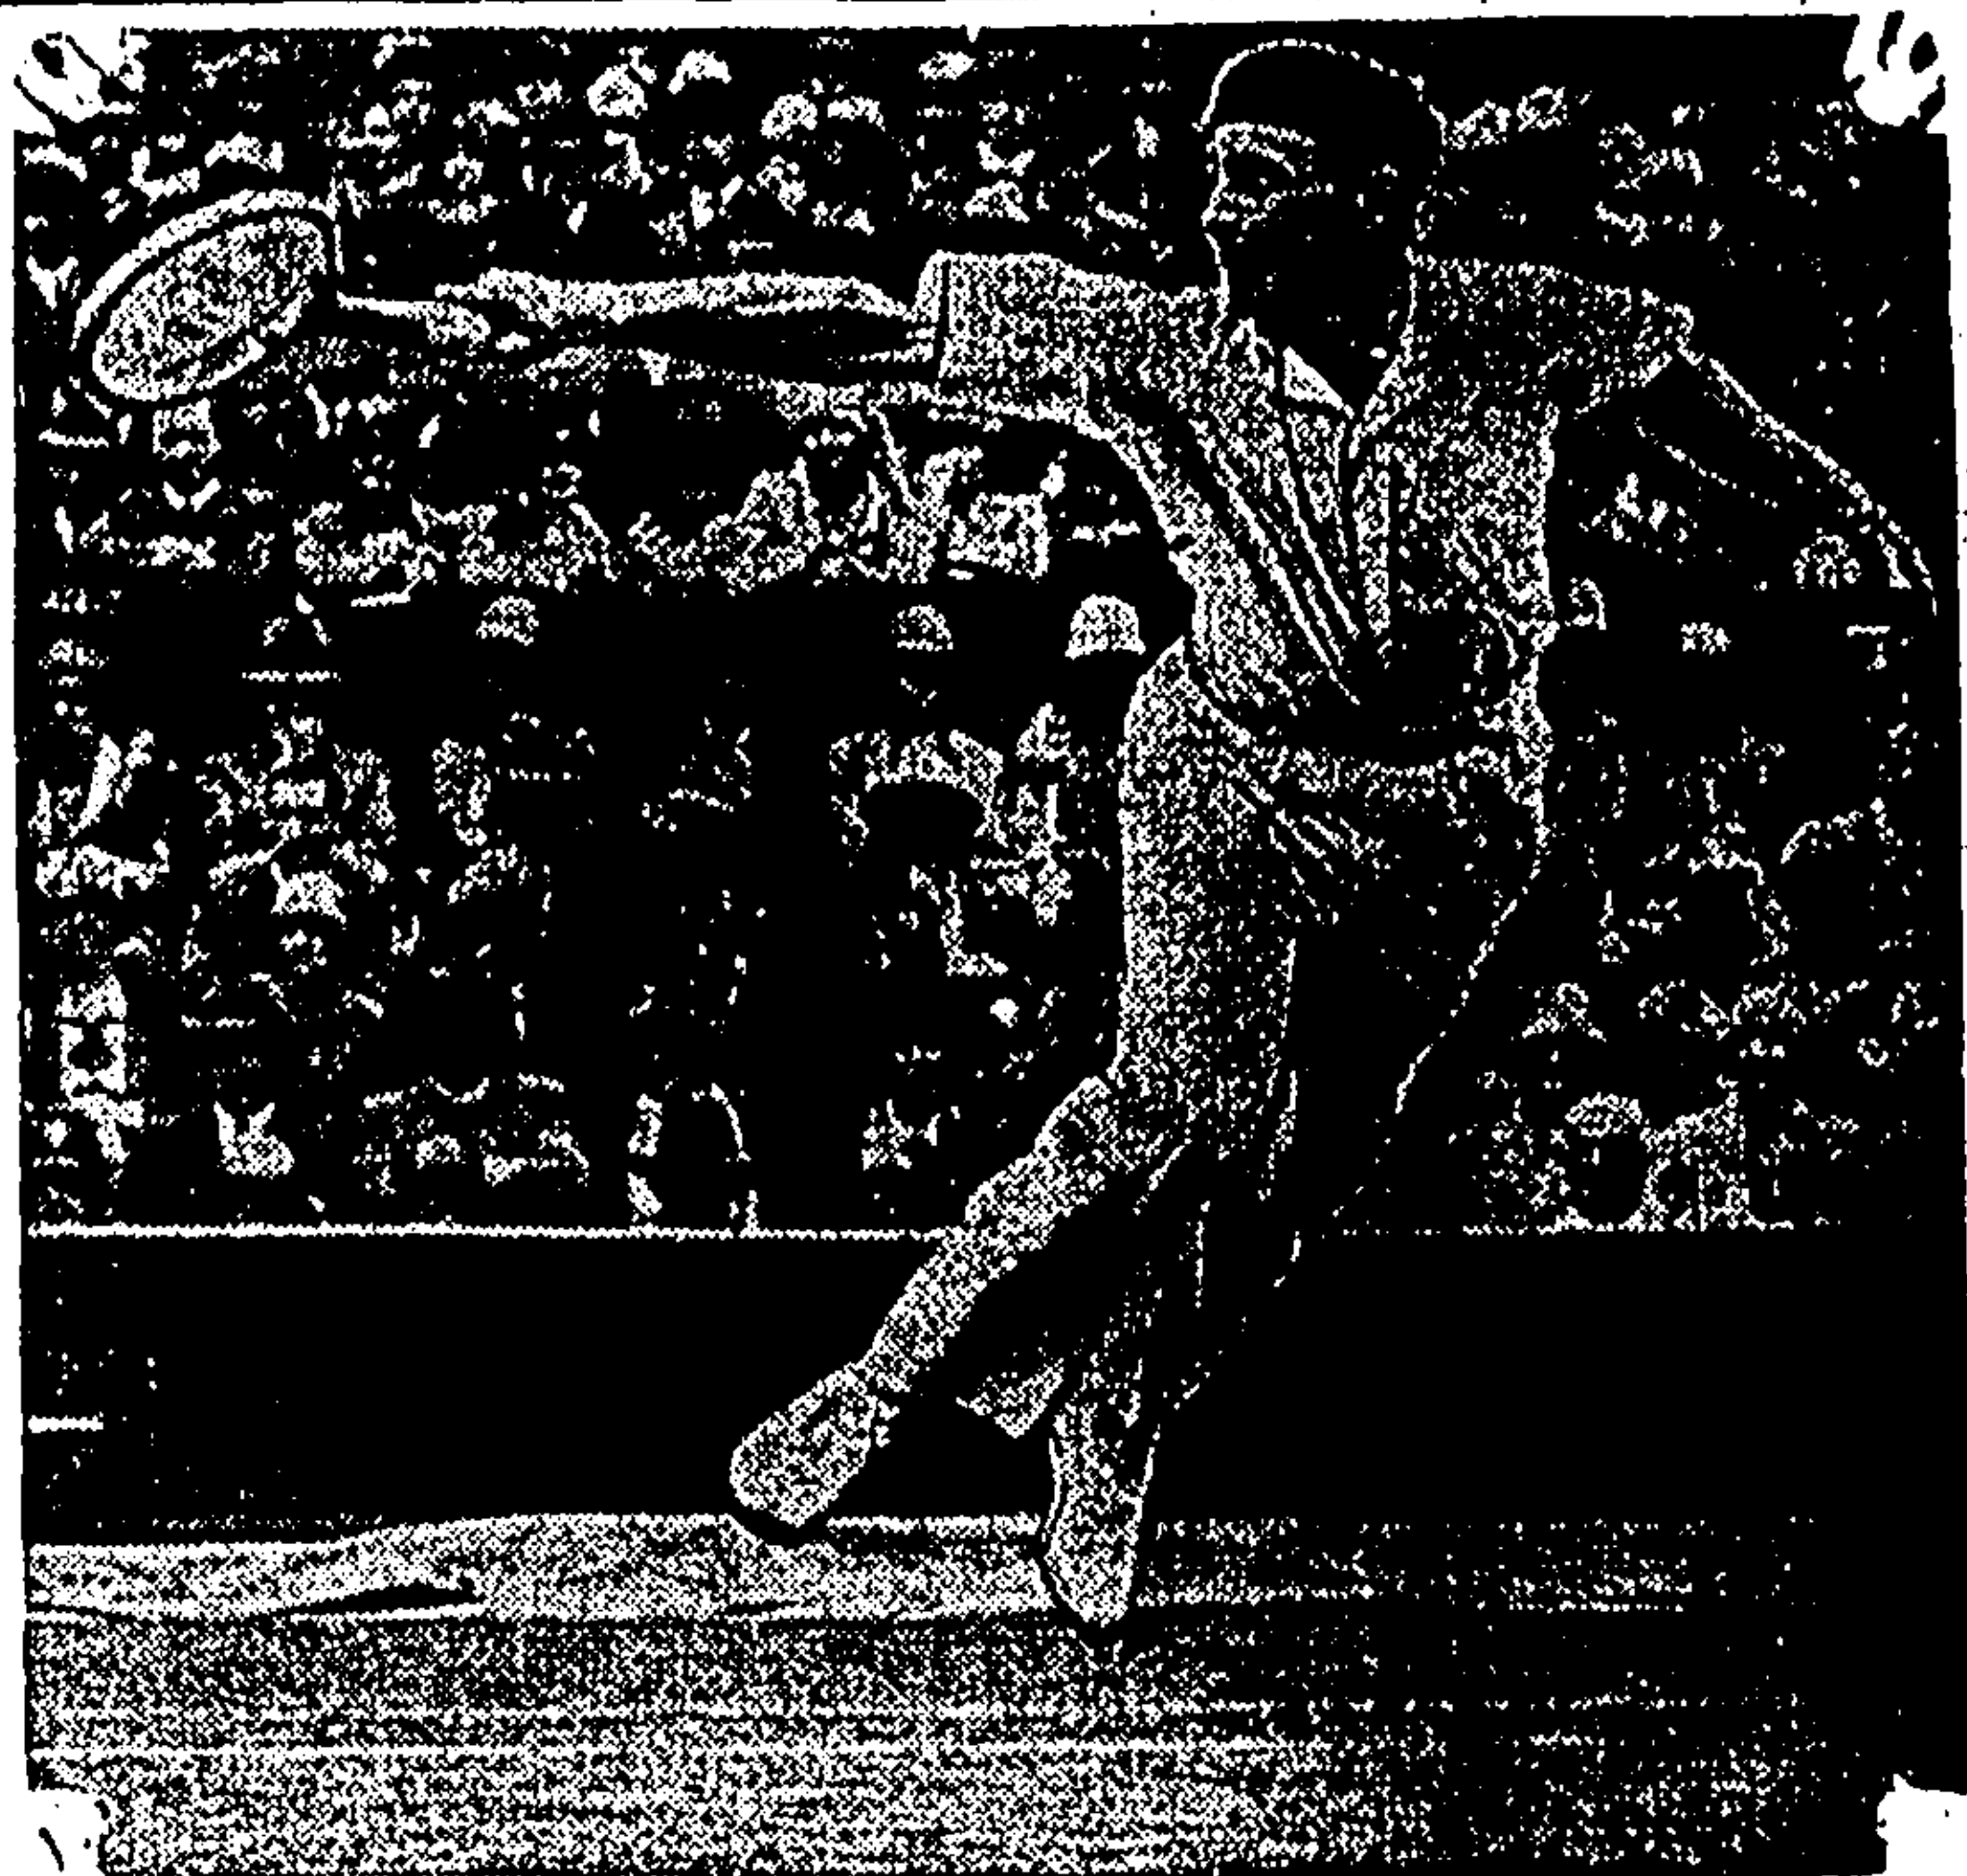

At Gloucester: Gloucestershire v. Yorkshire. Gloucester 20 for 0.

At Birmingham: Warwickshire v. Glamorgan. Warwick 215 (Clay 5 for 59).

At Ilford: Essex v. Lancashire. Lancs.: 491 for 8 (Iddon 114, Oldfield 115).

—Reuter.

This year you see a Scots team built round a core derived from Preston North End. But Preston is a good Scots name—Preston Pans, you remember.—C. B. Fry.

Jean Borotra, the "Bounding Basque," seen above, gives his opinion on the question of making the Davis Cup series a biennial event, in the adjoining article.

Mixed Double League Commences To-day

THREE INTERESTING MATCHES

THREE interesting matches in the Mixed Doubles League to-day will set the ball rolling in the 1938 Lawn Tennis League season, and some interesting play should be witnessed, especially at Cox's Road, where the strong Chinese Recreation Club team, who are favoured in many quarters to win the title, visit Kowloon Cricket Club "A," who also have a fairly strong team.

Much interest has been aroused over two of the new entries, the Hong Kong Cricket Club, and the Ladies Recreation Club, who clash on the former's courts. In the third encounter to-day, the United Services Recreation Club, holders of the title, meet K.C.C. "B."

PLAY SHOULD BE CLOSE

In all three of to-day's matches, with the possible exception of the K.C.C. "A"-C.R.C. match, play should be very close.

Chinese Recreation Club look very strong on paper, but they will come up against three well-balanced pairs, in K.C.C. "A" and, an upset at this stage of the League, is not altogether out of the question.

The Hong Kong Cricket Club look stronger than Ladies' Recreation Club, and should win comfortably, but I cannot say the same of the U.S.R.C., who look, if anything, weaker than their visitors.

The following are to-day's teams:—

OWEN SMITH LEADS AVERAGES

Cape Town, April 19.—H. G. Owen Smith, the former England Rugby captain and South African Test cricketer, headed the Western Province batting averages at the end of his first season in senior cricket in South Africa since his return from England.

In five innings he scored 258 runs for an average of 86. His highest score was 92 not out.

ARMSTRONG THINKS MUCH OF GINGER FORAN

London, April 19.—Henry Armstrong's manager has received an offer of £7,000 for Armstrong to meet Ginger Foran, the Liverpool feather-weight, in London in August.

Armstrong thinks highly of Foran, who has been doing very well in America, and there is every indication that the match will be made. "Ginger is a swell fighter," says Henry. Armstrong's manager, Eddie Meade, also has a high opinion of Foran. "This little Englishman looks like a pretty game fighter with a grand sense of sportsmanship," he said recently.

It is possible that if Armstrong makes the trip to England—and he is very keen about it—he may do so as triple world champion. On May 26 he meets Barney Ross for the welter-weight title, and if he wins he will oppose Lou Ambers on July 26 for the light-weight championship.

SERVICE HEAVIES DISAPPOINT

R.A.F.'s Victory In Team Title

(By HAROLD LEWIS)

London, April 14.
The Royal Air Force retained the team championship of the Imperial Services at the Empress Stadium, Earl's Court, last night with 38 points. The Army were second with 36 points; the Territorial Army third with 25 points; and the Royal Navy fourth with 24 points.

Many people had gone to Earl's Court, I imagine, to see the heavy-weight affair between Roger Hunter, the 6ft. 7in. giant, who was a London policeman and is now a pilot-officer, and Lt. A. R. V. Luke, a man of 6ft. 5in., of the Territorial Army. It was a most disappointing affair, won by Hunter without a really good blow being struck.

GRAND MIDDLES BOUT

Still, there was a grand fight in the officers' section, just preceding this heavyweight affair. The middleweight fight, won for the Army from the Royal Air Force by 2nd Lt. F. H. Murdoch, of the Royal Tank Corps, was thrilling and dramatic.

Murdoch knocked out his opponent, Acting Pilot-Officer A. C. Deere, just 20sec. before the fight was due to end, and there was no doubt in my mind that but for the knock-out Murdoch could not possibly have won.

FORGOT HIS SKILL

Murdoch, one of two Army officer brothers who are equally useful in the ring, did not box nearly so well as he did last year, being rather obsessed by his punching power and inclined to forget his skill. He had fallen into the habit of leading with his right, chin well extended in most inviting fashion.

As it happened, these tactics suited Deere perfectly, for Deere had precisely similar ideas on the subject of boxing, but was generally a shade quicker in the business. Consequently, both were hitting very hard but somewhat erratically, and Deere was scoring most of the points.

VITAL POINTS AT STAKE

At this time the issue between the Army and the R.A.F. was very close, and each fight mattered a good deal in the points being shown on the screen. Deere certainly won the first two rounds, and was fighting very well in the third.

Then, however, Murdoch had an idea. He again led with his right, but instead of punching the back of his opponent's head he went for the body and landed with considerable force in the middle of the stomach.

BADLY SHAKEN

Deere was badly shaken, and the next right-hander, as Deere staggered forward, smashed on his jaw. He fell, got up after about seven seconds, ran into a tremendous punch and was knocked out, and silently counted out.

The Army had another very close victory in the heavyweight bout of the Other Ranks, in which Guardsman Nichols, of the Grenadiers, outpointed the holder, Pte. J. Westerton, of the Territorial Army. Westerton boxed very well until he ran into a stiff right-hander to the chin, and another later, during the first round.

SURPRISING VERDICT

Nichols might have followed up at this point, but apparently had not observed the shakiness of his opponent's knees. Curiously enough, Westerton again boxed cleverly in the second round until he again ran into the same sort of punch, but the third round was hard and close all the way, and I was a little surprised that the Army man got the verdict.

One of the best fights of the evening in point of skill was the Other Ranks' flyweight bout, a victory for House, of the R.A.F., over Fisher, of the Army. Corpl. Fisher proved to be a fine, natural hitter, who just lacked self-control and allowed himself to be led into all sorts of traps by the shrewd airman. House met his onslaughts firmly and made no mistake about scoring his points until, in the third round, he was winning as he liked.

It was good to see the discipline exercised in this Services boxing. I do not mean regimental discipline, but the strict adherence to the proper principles of the sport.

ASTON VILLA BEAT VIENNA AT BERLIN

Berlin, To-day.

Aston Villa, who are playing a series of matches against German football teams, defeated the Viennese XI by 3 goals to 2 in the presence of a crowd of 100,000 spectators at the Olympic Stadium here yesterday.

The victory of the British players was due to their better physical condition and superior tactics.

The first goal was scored by the Villa's outside right, Broome, in the seventh minute. Shortly before the interval, the Viennese centre-forward equalised.

After the interval the Austrians took the offensive but the excellent defensive combination play of the Britons frustrated all their attacks.

The failure of their best efforts, combined with the terrific heat and physical strain, apparently undermined the morale of the Viennese players whose resistance then grew noticeably weaker so that Aston Villa scored twice in succession, giving them a lead of 3 goals to 1.

The Austrians scored their second goal during the last few minutes but endeavours to equalise were frustrated by the distinctly superior combination of the Britons.—Trans-Ocean.

GLOUCESTERS WIN ARMY CUP

London, March 30.—Six minutes from the start of the Army Cup final at Aldershot a Welsh Guards forward got off-side near his own "25" and Arengo-Jones kicked a penalty goal which was enough to give the 2nd Battalion of the Gloucestershire Regiment their first victory in the competition since 1910. Penalty goals have played a large part in their success, for in the semi-final Arengo-Jones kicked the three which gave them a single point victory over the 1st Welch Regiment, the holders.

BEN FOORD HAS BEEN PAID PURSE

MAY FIGHT NEUSEL AGAIN

(By "HAROLD LEWIS")

London, April 19.

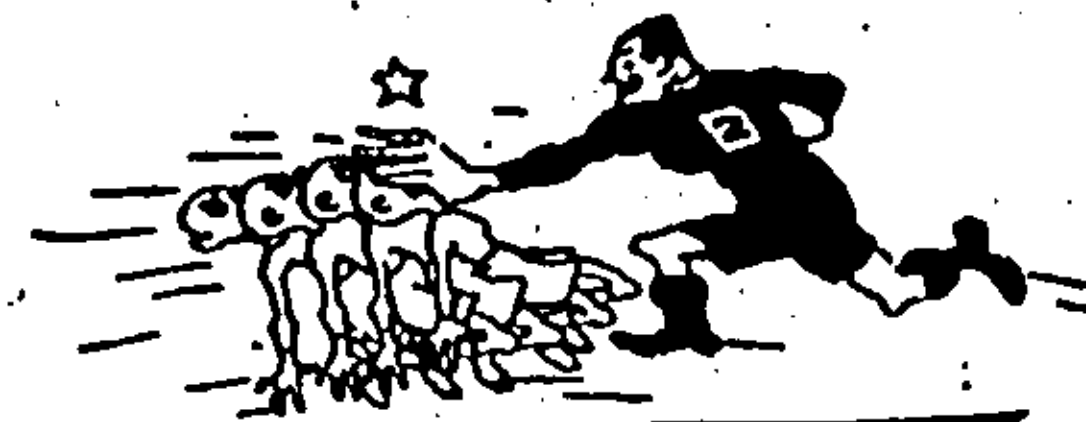

Ben Foord has been paid his purse by the promoter for his fight with Walter Neusel at Hamburg on Saturday, when he was disqualified in the eighth round for an alleged low punch.

At one time it seemed that the German Boxing Board were likely to require Foord's money to be handed to them until they had dealt with the case, but according to a Reuter message, received last night, they are taking a lenient view of the case and will probably only fine him.

In that event, it is stated, they will also agree to a return fight as soon as possible.

Meanwhile Foord's manager, Mr. Louis Walsh, has protested against the referee's action in disqualifying Foord, and there is a good deal of sympathy in Hamburg with this protest because it is felt that the referee handled the fight somewhat nervously from the start and permitted infringements by both boxers.

An offer was to have been made to the winner to fight at Earl's Court during the early summer, possibly against Tommy Farr, but the unsatisfactory nature of the fight may mean the cancellation of this idea.

CAMBRIDGE RUGBY TEAM HOME

London, April 20.

The Cambridge University team reached England yesterday after their successful tour of the United States.

They won all their six matches, scoring a total of 218 points to six, the points against them being made up by two penalty goals. They defeated Yale by 40-0, Harvard by 50-0, Princeton by 19-0, the All New York team by 38-6, the New York Club by 35-0 and the All East team by 36-0.

Mr. Percy Heywood, who was in charge of the team, said the weather conditions were very bad and that attendances suffered in consequence.

There was, however, great general interest taken in the games. He was in the United States with the University team in 1934 and could say that the interest on their present visit was much more marked. He did not think the standard of play in America had improved noticeably.

GERMANY AT HOCKEY

Berlin, To-day.

Germany defeated Holland yesterday when the International Hockey match between the two countries was played at the Reichs Sports Field.

The German players, who showed excellent form, scored the first goal in the first minute and the second shortly afterwards.

After the interval, the Germans increased their lead to three goals while the Dutch players' only goal was scored through a penalty bully, shortly before the end of the match.—Trans-Ocean.

An unusual incident occurred at the Valley this morning, in which Mr. C. Encarnacao, the northern jockey, was concerned.

He took out Piet Hein, belonging to Hollandia, which has been entered for the Peiho Handicap (First Section) at next Saturday's meeting. Directly opposite the band stand the pony suddenly bucked, and, taken completely by surprise, Mr. Encarnacao was unseated. He was, however, unhurt, and after the pony was caught remounted and completed the exercise.

There is some dissatisfaction among followers of snooker at the way in which matches are decided. I know quite a few who feel that a fairer way would be to decide matches on aggregate of points instead of by the number of frames won, as at present.—A Writer in the "London Evening News."

BRIDGE NOTES

By ELY CULBERTSON

How Good Are You?

Mr. Culbertson is conducting, through this column, an examination of bridge players. Rate yourself by subtracting from 100 the points for each wrong answer.

The question that appeared last Saturday was:

Question 40: You are South, and vulnerable. Opponents are not vulnerable. West, your left-hand opponent, deals and the bidding proceeds:

West	North	East	South
1 heart	Pass	Pass	?
You hold:
S.—A K J 9 8 5, H.—2, D.—A 10 8 3, C.—6 4.

What call do you make?

Answer: You should bid two spades. You should not double for a takeout because there is entirely too much chance that your partner, holding four or five hearts, will leave in the double. Nor should you bid only one spade. Partner would think that you were bidding largely because West's partner had shown terrific weakness. You must express that you are not merely "protecting," nor reopening tentatively, but that you have definite game aspirations. (Three points demerit for passing; two points demerit for doubling, for bidding one spade, or four spades. One point demerit for bidding three spades.)

TO-DAY'S QUESTIONS

Question 41: Both sides vulnerable. You are South. The bidding has proceeded:

West	North	East	South
1 spade	Pass	2 diamonds	?
You, South, hold:
S.—6 4 3, H.—7, D.—K J 10 9 8 6, C.—Q J 9.

What call do you make?

Question 42: Both sides vulnerable. You are South. The bidding has proceeded:

West	North	East	South
1 spade	Double	3 spades	?
You, South, hold:
S.—Q J 2, H.—3 2, D.—7 4 2, C.—A K Q J 4.
What call do you make?

TO-DAY'S HAND

Match point duplicate.

North, dealer.

Neither side vulnerable.

NORTH

S.—A 9 5 4
H.—A Q J 3
D.—8
C.—K 10 6 5

WEST

S.—7 6 2
H.—8 5 4

C.—A Q 4 3

EAST

H.—K 7 2
D.—Q 10 9 4 3
C.—J 7 2

SOUTH

S.—K Q 8 3
H.—10 9 6

C.—9 8

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 club	Pass	1 spade	Pass
2 spades	Pass	2 no trump	Pass
4 spades	Pass	Pass	Pass

West opened a small trump. Declarer won and did not make the mistake of taking out trumps before establishing side suits. He immediately played a club toward dummy's king. West won and led another trump. Declarer won and finessed against the heart king. East, on winning, had no trump to lead, hence shifted to a diamond. The ace won, the club king was cashed, and a club ruffed. A heart to dummy, the ruffing of the last club, then the reentering of dummy with the diamond ruff, to draw the opponents' last trump, gave this declarer the good match point score of five-odd.

What's On At the Cinemas

AT THE KING'S—"Merrily We Live", with Constance Bennett, Brian Aherne, Alan Mowbray, Billie Burke and Patsy Kelly. A rollicking comedy of the doings of a society hostess with a weakness in trying to reform tramps by engaging them in her household much to the annoyance of the rest of the family.

AT THE MAJESTIC—"The Firefly". Jeanette MacDonald has a new singing sweetheart in the person of Allan Jones in this filmization of the celebrated Otto Harbach-Rudolf Friml operetta. Allan Jones plays his most important screen role as the dashing Don Diego who pursues the elusive "Firefly" throughout a series of turbulent romantic adventures in this new musical hit. The supporting cast includes Warren William, Billy Gilbert and Douglas Dumbrille.

AT THE ALHAMBRA—"Penrod And His Twin Brother." Meet the junior "G-Men" and watch them give gangland the works in a rollicking tale of boyhood irrepressible that is just as appealing to their elders as it is to the youngsters themselves. With the Mauch Twins, Frank Craven, Spring Byington, Charles Halton, Claudia Coleman and all the kids on the lot.

AT THE ORIENTAL—"King Solomon's Mines", with Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Paul Robeson, Anna Lee and Roland Young. Rider Haggard's great romance. Thousand of giant Zulus, armed with flame-tipped spears, battling to the death, with the lives of five European adventurers, four men and a woman, and the wrath of the fabulous mines of Ophir at stake, furnish the big scenes in this picture.

AT THE QUEEN'S—"The Great Garrick." All the glamour and romance of the gorgeous 18th century lives again in this glittering comedy of a world renowned actor and his feud with an equally famous institution. Starring Brian Aherne, Olivia de Havilland, Edward Everett Horton, Melville Cooper, Lionel Atwill and Luis Alberni.

AT THE STAR—"It's Love I'm After", with Leslie Howard, Bette Davis and Olivia de Havilland. Howard is shown as a stage star and Bette as his leading woman. They love each other but each is a scene stealer and they battle continuously over it. When, however, Olivia de Havilland falls in love with Leslie, the story concerns itself with how he and Bette succeed in sending Olivia back to her fiancé and get the "love, they are after."

BAD SMASHES IN GRAND PRIX OF TRIPOLIS

Tripolis, To-day.
The international automobile race for the "Grand Prix of Tripolis" was unfortunately marred by several accidents.

The Italian driver, Siena, was mortally injured when his car overturned at full speed, and several spectators were more or less seriously injured when cars driven by the Hungarian, Hartmann, and the Italian, Farina, collided.

The race resulted in another victory for the German automobile industry since the winner of the race as well as the cars which were placed second and third respectively were Mercedes Benz cars.

The race was won by Herman Lang who also won the Grand Prix last year in the excellent time of two hours, 33 minutes, 17 seconds at an average speed of 205.2 kilometres per hour.

The two other Mercedes Benz drivers, namely von Brauchitsch and Carracoiola finished second and third.

Comotti in a French Delahaye car occupied the fourth place and the fifth place went to an Italian Alfa Romeo car driven by Sommer.

JAPANESE COLUMN VIRTUALLY WIPED OUT

VIOLENT STRUGGLE

Hsuehchow, To-day.
With little change reported along the front of the south Shantung line, fierce fighting of unparalleled violence continues to rage at many points over a wide area in west Shantung near the Honan and Kiangsu borders.

Japanese mechanised units, lumbering into action against the Chinese line at Hotseh, on the Hopei-Shantung border, encountered stiff resistance by the defenders. They succeeded in forcing the Chinese to retire to the outside of the walled city.

HOLDING ON

To the southwest of Kuyoh, historic battle ground twenty-five kilometres west of Tsining, Japanese troops are pitched against a strong force of Chinese near Kwanyingtsi and Lungkangtsi, where a fierce encounter is imminent.

A column of Japanese troops vigorously attacked Yutai near the Kiangsu border. The defenders are grimly holding on, yielding no ground.

At Linputsi, on the eastern bank of the Yellow River, vanguards of the Japanese force have started to retreat.—Central News.
